Let's introspect!

1. Think and respond with 'YES' or 'NO'.

When you are faced with a very serious problem or some grave danger, what do you experience?

Your feelings	panic	<input type="text"/>
	wishing you were never born	<input type="text"/>
	hopelessness	<input type="text"/>
	helplessness	<input type="text"/>
	no emotion	<input type="text"/>
	calmness and composure	<input type="text"/>
Your reactions	willingness to tackle it	<input type="text"/>
	break down and cry	<input type="text"/>
	run away and hide	<input type="text"/>
	pray to God	<input type="text"/>
	ask for help	<input type="text"/>
	build up courage	<input type="text"/>
	take it as a challenge	<input type="text"/>

- Write about your feelings and reactions in 4-5 lines.

You may describe your feelings and reactions using other words than those given here.

- Form groups of four. Discuss what you actually feel and do in difficult situations and some of the things you could do and would like to do in those situations.

2. Guess what the following symbolise and match the pairs.

Invictus

- ◆ What is the poet thankful for?
- ◆ Which lines show that the poet has suffered his hardships bravely?
- ◆ What is meant by the 'place of wrath and fears'?
- ◆ What does the poet have full control over?

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the Pit from pole to pole
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds, and shall find, me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate.
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate :
I am the captain of my soul.

- By William Ernest Henley

- invictus: unconquered
- pit: a large deep hole in the ground
- wrath: anger
- fell clutch: wicked trap
